SUPPLEMENT

25X1X6

1. The special investigation of the war record of General Sergei Ingr has been concluded. The case was placed before the Cabinet. President Benes advised the investigating committee that he will support Ingr.
2. The investigation is reported to have turned up substantiation of the charges that General Ingr permitted the continuation of intelligence against the Soviets after the signing of the Czechoslovak-Soviet Treaty.
3. General Ingr was sounded out whether he would consider a diplomatic post abroad; after considering the offer for five days he refused, insisting on an active post in the army. If the Cabinet clears him and restores him to active service, a dilemma will arise. He would far outrank by time in grade both Generals Svabeda and Bocek.
